Criminal Revision No. 926 of 2001

Hon. M.C. Jain, J.

Heard learned counsel for the revisionist and learned A.G.A.

The petitioner is an accused in a complaint case no. 307 of 2001 pending before the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bageshwar and has been summoned on the complaint filed by the respondent. He has straightaway filed this revision against summoning order. The proper remedy for the petitioner is to approach the Court concerned with his objections against the summoning order. In case he does so within 15 days, the court concerned shall decide his objections first by a speaking order before proceeding further in the complaint case.

With this, the revision is dismissed.
